General

This website makes use of cookies - both session and permanent cookies - in order to give you the best possible service and user experience. You can recall your approval of the use of cookies or prevent the usage anytime by changing your settings within your webbrowser or by using special browser-plugins. Please regard that without your acceptance this website might not work as intended.

Disclaimer Session Cookies

During your use of this website so-called session cookies are stored in your browser, which will be deleted when exiting your browser. You can avoid storing cookies by selecting the appropriate settings on your browser. However, please note that if you do this you might not be able to use the full functionality of this website.

Disclaimer permanent Cookies

This website uses permanent cookies with a long-term life-span. These cookies are being used in order to recognize you as a reoccurring user but also in order to remember your acceptance for the use of cookies (session cookies as well as permanent cookies) on this website. Personal information will never be saved.

Disclaimer Clicky

This website uses Clicky, a web analytics service provided by Roxr Software, Ltd. ("Roxr"). Clicky uses "cookies", which are text files placed on your computer and enable you to analyse how visitors use the site. The information generated by the cookie about your use of the website (including your IP address in anonymised form) will be, in general, transmitted to and stored by Roxr on servers in the United States. On behalf of operator of this website, Roxr will use this information for the purpose of evaluating your use of the website, compiling reports on website activity for website operators and providing other services relating to website activity and internet usage to the website operator. Roxr may also transfer this information to third parties where required to do so by law, or where such third parties process the information on Roxr's behalf. Roxr will not associate your anonymised IP address with any other data held by Roxr. The stored information is only available to the website operator and the competent technical provider. The information is evaluated exclusively internally for purposes of maintenance and improving the operation of the website and related services. You may prevent the use of cookies by selecting the appropriate settings in your browser-software. However, please note that if you do this you may not be able to use the full functionality of this website. Furthermore, you can prevent Roxr's collection and use of data (cookies and IP address) by downloading and installing a browser plug-in. By using this website, you consent to the processing of data about you by Roxr in the manner and for the purposes set out above.

Disclaimer Google Analytics

This website uses Google Analytics, a web analytics service provided by Google Inc. („Google“). Google Analytics uses "cookies", which are text files placed on your computer and enable you to analyse how visitors use the website. The information generated by the cookie about your use of the website will usually be transmitted to and stored by Google on servers in the United States. In case of activation of the IP anonymization on this website, Google will first truncate the IP address within Member States of the European Union as well as for other parties to the Agreement on the European Economic Area. Only in exceptional cases the full IP address is sent to and shortened by Google servers in the United States. On behalf of the website operator Google will use this information for the purpose of evaluating your use of the website, compiling reports on website activity for website operators and providing other services relating to website activity and internet usage to the website provider. Google may also transfer this information to third parties where required to do so by law, or where such third parties process the information on Google's behalf. Google will not connect your IP address, as provided from your browser by Google Analytics, with any other data held by Google. You may refuse the use of cookies by selecting the appropriate settings on your browser. However, please note that if you do this you might not be able to use the full functionality of this website. Furthermore, you can prevent Google's collection and use of data (cookies and IP address) by downloading and installing the browser plug-in available under <http://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout?hl=en-GB>.

By using this website, you consent to the processing of data about you by Google in the manner and for the purposes set out above.

Data processing

We only collect personal data if you disclose this information to us voluntarily. Data entered by yourself, eg name, company, address, email, phone etc. is collected and processed exclusively for the purpose of communicating with you. We treat your data with strict confidentiality and do not disclose it to third parties without your express consent. Passwords set up during creation of user accounts are stored in encrypted form. If you have registered on our website we store note list objects and search profiles related to your user account. The use of all services offered is also permitted – to the extent technically possible and reasonable – without providing such data and/or anonymously entering data or by using an alias.

Your usage behaviour of our website will not be connected with your user account. This data is evaluated exclusively for internal statistical purposes and for the technical administration of the website and will not be shared with any third parties, not even in excerpts. This anonymous data is stored separately from personal data and will thereby not enable any association with your personal data and/or to draw conclusions about an individual person.

You have, at any time, the right to require information relating to the data stored concerning your person, its origin and the recipient as well as the purpose of storage. At your request, we will provide full information at no expense about the data stored concerning your person at any time, correct, close or delete your data and answer all your questions regarding collection, storage and processing of your data.
